Knowledge is power and when we understand we were made by Him and for Him, nothing can stop us. You were bought at a price and should therefore honor God with your body. It's time to educate and shape a generation on honoring God with our whole being. We will shine from the inside out. Together we will have a well-nourished mind and body ready to be used by God. So let's come together and gain a better understanding, and while we're at it, let's dance as we build His kingdom. You'll be surprised at what you can do when your insides are shining with God's love.
